

Saskatchewan Child & Family Agenda

- Children get a good start in life
- Youth are prepared for their future
- Families are strong
- Communities are supportive

TRiP (11UI | twelve&up | HUB) Response

TRiP is strongly aligned with the Saskatchewan Child & Family agenda by:

- Engaging children and families with services that promote pro-social activities and school engagement

Building Partnerships to Reduce Crime

- It is research driven, evidence-based approach based on the development of a collective and interdisciplinary knowledge base that both confirms and guides best practices, which need to be applied to the challenges in Saskatchewan
- It advocates government, police and community partners working together collaboratively to find local solutions to crime and victimization, and community safety and wellness
- It is an integrated, deliberative, collaborative and committed approach that is community driven and provincially supported

TRiP is strongly aligned with the Building Partnerships to Reduce Crime agenda by:

- Utilizing evidence-based early intervention to engage and support children and families
- Leveraging intersectoral collaboration among government, police and community partners to identify crime prevention and community well-being solutions

Mental Health & Addictions Action Plan

- Enhance access and capacity and support recovery in the community
- Focus on prevention and early intervention
- Create person and family-centred and coordinated services
- Respond to diversities
- Partner with First Nations and Métis Peoples
- Reduce stigma and increase awareness
- Transform the system and sustain the change

TRiP is well aligned with the anticipated Mental Health and Addictions Strategy by:

- Providing children and families with access to services through a collaborative, intersectoral partnership
- Leveraging intersectoral collaboration among government, police and community partners to identify crime prevention, early intervention, integration and community well-being solutions

Children's Advocate

- Advocate for social and public policy change that benefits all children and youth
- Promote high quality government and community-based programs and services for children and youth
- Strengthen collaboration and partnerships to achieve better outcomes for children and youth
- Ensure the advocate for Children and Youth delivers excellent, accessible and accountable services

TRiP is supportive of the recommendations of the Children's Advocate by:

- Engaging children with government and community services
- Using collaboration and partnerships to achieve positive outcomes for children
- Ensuring that child remain engaged with services and programs

Drop-out Prevention Strategy

- Achieve 85% graduation rate
- Proactive engagement
- Career path & goal development

TRiP is closely aligned with the anticipated Drop-out Prevention Strategy by:

- Proactively identifying children who are experiencing sporadic attendance
- Engaging children with pro-social activities in their school and community
- Assist with reintegration from incarceration facilities
