

TRiP is made up of three components; the 11 and Under Initiative (11UI), the twelve&up Initiative and a community Hub. The following information focuses on 11UI and twelve&up.

- 11 and Under Initiative (11UI) is a prevention and early intervention initiative;
- twelve&up is an intervention and integration initiative;
- both 11UI and twelve&up support children who are exhibiting behaviours that may put them at risk for criminal involvement or an increased risk of victimization;
- by focusing on coordinated service support, reduction of barriers to pro-social activities, and school engagement;
- 11UI and twelve&up aim to generate risk reduction, and ultimately reduced vulnerability for children and their families.

About TRiP

What you
Should know

- the child/youth's participation in 11UI or twelve&up is voluntary and requires parent/guardian consent;
- it is important for the caregiver to recognize that they have an important role influencing the child/youth's behavior;
- there is an expectation the caregiver will be involved in all case conferences and other activities to support an agreed upon plan;
- failure to participate may result in a discontinuation of support from the initiative.

TRiP Stakeholders

- Regina Public Schools
